THE STORY SO FAR

Close to the cobbled quayside where the Mayflower left for America in 1620, Bayards Cove Inn is one of the oldest buildings in Dartmouth, a 14th century Tudor inn that's now a café, bar and restaurant with seven luxurious ensuite rooms, two of which are family suites.

Bayards Cove Inn is also known as Agincourt House and was built and named by a merchant in the 14th century after the battle of the same name. It has had many guises and upgrades during the past 600 or so years, gaining grade II listed status in 1949, and is the second oldest building in Dartmouth.

In 2012, its current owners, Charlie and Zuzana Deuchar, purchased the property and since then it's seen a continual process of upgrades and improvements to reflect changing demands and to ensure its appeal endures.

The licensed café, bar and restaurant promises a delicious and seasonal menu inspired by the surrounding coast and countryside, rustic Devon classics, nostalgic British favourites and exciting modern dishes – all made from outstanding local ingredients.

The menus have been developed to reflect the changing seasons, sourcing only the very best local food, with every taste catered for, including vegan, vegetarian and gluten free. Overseen by head chef Danny, in recent years, the hotel has won a raft of prestigious awards for its food and rooms.

With a stunning location, just a stone's throw from the historic Bayards Cove, the mouth of the River Dart and the South West Coast Path, Bayards Cove Inn is the perfect place to base your South Devon break.

This quirky and ancient building creaks and groans and needs year round care and attention, but it stands proudly in this historic town and is adored by locals and visitors alike.

With the atmosphere of an intimate town house a warm welcome oozes from every nook and cranny. It's an incredible place to stay where history and comfort collide in memorable fashion and where a sense of times gone by pervades.

BEDROOMS

It's time to relax and enjoy some time off in Dartmouth. We have seven beautiful rooms, two of which are family suites.

Our rooms have been thoughtfully kitted out to ensure you have everything you need during your stay including locally roasted coffee and loose leaf tea. Our rooms are pet friendly too, because dogs love Devon as well. We can cater for up to two dogs per room at an additional charge and provide dog beds, locally made dog treats and bowls.

All our rooms are decorated and furnished in a contemporary style, influenced by South Devon's naval history. We've named each after a famous nautical figure who served in the Royal Navy, a salute to warriors of old, for whom the south coast of Devon played a vital role.

All our rooms come with our famous Bayards breakfasts included.

RESTAURANT & BAR

Our café, bar and restaurant promise delicious seasonal menus – rustic classics, nostalgic British favourites and exciting modern dishes that are fresh, local and support the Westcountry’s farmers, fishermen and growers. They’ve been created to suit varying tastes from the plant-based, to the gluten-free, to the meat-loving, all made with outstanding local ingredients with which the Westcountry is blessed.

The menus are constantly evolving too, with fresh fish featuring strongly, including our daily landed catch of the day.

If you’re feeling peckish, cream teas, snacks, cakes, tea, coffee and drinks are served all day.

Our bar is a relaxed and welcoming place to grab an after-work drink, celebrate with a unique cocktail, enjoy a quick sip before bed, or re-fuel after a day spent exploring the South Hams.

Children are always welcome too, with menus just for them, and if you’re staying, there’s a free crab bucket and line in each room, as well as our guide to the best crabbing hotspots in town.

We are so proud to locally source the finest ingredients from across Devon, and lots from within Dartmouth itself. We hope you agree that everything tastes better when its been made just around the corner.

DARTMOUTH

Our naval town is steeped in history with an intricate web of narrow lanes, cobbled streets, steps, corridors and winding paths to explore, and a deep water harbour that has been home to vessels of every shape and size since the twelfth century.

Just stand at the harbour side, gaze across the River Dart, and that precious sense of history is almost tangible as you imagine the comings and goings of Royal Navy ships laden with sailors, brave fishermen weathering the storms, and the Pilgrims Fathers watchful and anxious as they began their long and perilous journey to a new and bountiful land.

Keep your eyes peeled for blue plaques which trace Dartmouth's Mayflower Heritage Trail telling our town's story and its relationship with that voyage.

Whatever your interest, whether its hiking to new places, soaking up history, wandering around gorgeous independent shops or getting on the water, there really is something for everyone on Dartmouth.

The South West Coast Path and the views from Gallants Bower; the inspiring art found in the galleries; the wonderful cafes and pubs; the ferry across the Kingswear; the idyllic St Petrox Church; the River Dart; Agatha Christie's home at Greenway, Dartmouth Castle; Bayards Cove Fort - our town offers so much and its sense of history and place will leave you breathless.

It seeps out of every brick, every alcove, from every street corner and the beauty of our town and the surrounding seascapes and countryside are utterly beguiling.

And don't forget somewhere in the town there's a mermaid called Miranda.

ON THE WATER

Dartmouth is a haven for those who love the water: sailing, surfing, kayaking, canoeing, paddle boarding, wild swimming & coasteering are all available.

So grab a life jacket, or hop on board and entrench yourself in our watery culture.

Please visit our website & visit our On the Water page under the Dartmouth tab, for a full list of water based activities and must visit places.
